

Age Action's Social Media Engagement Policy

Age Action's has established the following guidelines for public posts on official Age Action social media platforms. Age Action designated social administrators are expected to monitor the platforms and enforce these guidelines.

Posting policies for Facebook audiences

Age Action welcomes participation on our Facebook pages and engagement on our Twitter account and encourages you to interact with us often and to comment about the content you find here.

Once posted, Age Action reserves the right to delete submissions that contain vulgar language, personal attacks of any kind, or comments we deem to be offensive or disparaging. We do not discriminate against any views, but administrators of official Age Action social media platforms pages do reserve the right to delete the following, or to block users who post the following:

- Obscenity, nudity, defamation or hate speech (Speech that targets people or groups based on race, ethnicity, religion, gender, or any other protected status)
- Comments/posts that threaten to harm individuals, groups or organizations
- Commercial advertisements or solicitations of funds
- Endorsement or encouragement of illegal activities
- Multiple off-topic posts or repetitive posts
- Deceptive or misleading
- Personal information including but not limited to e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, mailing addresses, or identification numbers
- Name calling or personal attacks
- Spam (persistent negative and/or abusive tweeting in which the aim is to provoke a response)

V1 Published 2019

V2 Published 2021

In short: Be respectful. Be smart. Be human. Add to the discussion, and help grow our community in constructive ways.

Please be aware that while administrators are responsible for moderating the page, we cannot immediately review every comment posted on a page. Opinions expressed in non-Age Action posts are not those of Age Action and its employees, and we cannot guarantee the accuracy of these posts.